

MY Heaven

It don't matter where I am
For I'll find my way
To a door that's been left open
A passage into nature's whisper
Here I'll stay
Amongst my many animal friends
And join in song with the insects
I will become the protector of the rainforest
Here I won't feel the sun
Nor raindrops on my head
The moon and the stars will twinkle far up above the trees
It's a home that's alive
As the forest echoes
Time here is not measured by a clock
For time stands still forever
And no one is in a hurry
I'll be at peace with nature
And this will be my heaven
